

March 2022

Choose people you know and care you trust. Choose Iroquois Memorial Hospice.

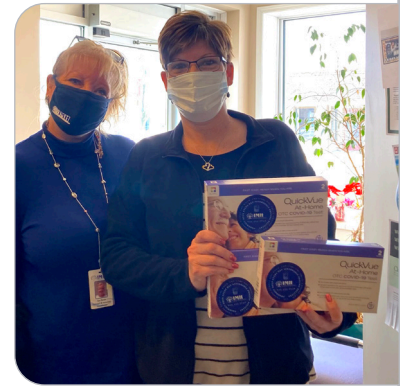

Getting to know Holli VanHoveln, Hospice RN

- Grew up on a dairy farm
- Attended Donovan high school
- Lives in Watseka with her husband, Joe, and three children Reagan, Ryli and Owen
- Received her Associate Degree in Nursing from Kankakee Community College
- Worked as a RN at Iroquois Memorial Hospital in Labor and Delivery and as a RN for the psychiatrist at Gibson Behavioral Health Clinic in Watseka

- Since November of 2021 she has been employed as an RN at Iroquois Memorial Hospice
- Grew up in a Christian home and currently attends Cornerstone Church in Woodland
- Says, "my faith is a big part of my life and has gotten me through a lot including with Ryli our special needs eight-year-old"
- Enjoys hanging out with her family and being mom in her very busy family
- She has a hobby of photography and enjoys doing portraits, but not weddings
- She would love to someday own her own photography studio or clothing boutique
- She says of her work at IMH Hospice, "I really like being in the home with the patient and family and working to preserve who they are as a person and making their last days memorable"
- Holli, your tender and compassionate spirit makes you a perfect match for the Iroquois Memorial Hospice team. Welcome aboard!

La-Zann Yana & Amanda Hibbs, Watseka Chamber, with COVID-19 At-Home Test Kits

Toasting to 26 years of caring for patients and their families

Volunteer Updates

Iroquois Memorial Hospital received free Covid-19 at-home test kits and distributed them to the community last week. If you did not get one and would like one, please call La-Zann at 815.43.27791, while supplies last.

Please mark your calendars to attend our IMH Volunteer Luncheon recognizing the commitment and love each of you give to our hospice program. This year's luncheon will be Thursday, April 21st at the Elks Club in Watseka. Details to follow. I am looking forward to seeing each of your beautiful faces, you have been missed!

Congratulations to Patty Lewis, IMH Hospice and Home Health CNA, winner of Iroquois Memorial Hospice blanket